Q2 - Yes Responses

It's perfect for me.

I have my own room. I like living with my family.

Close to work and support Broher Agency.

It works right now.

Like living right downtown. Very convenient location to/for everything.

I live to stay without a roommate.

Close to family & friends.

They are flexible to meet my mood swings and emotional outbursts. They do things with me and care about me.

Like to be with family.

I like where I live.

No roommates because I hate them.

I am loved, well cared for and have a very full life.

Predictable, reliable living situation.

I am more independent.

I like them.

Because I'm very independent and the landlord cares about me and I get all assistance I need.

Consistent, reliable home & family.

Good neighborhood.

I live on the west side.

Because I live where I want to live.

My mother takes care of my personal cares and I live in a nice neighborhood.

It's where I'm comfortable.

Quality of standards in a residential home.

It's clean, nice neighbors and one very friendly dog (the neighbors).

Because I'm happily married and I live in a great apartment.

My family loves me and respects me.

Living situation.

I'm comfortable and have freedom to come and go as I please.

I can direct my home.

Because I'm with my mom.

It works.

I have lived here awhile, I have friends nearby. Its close to the park and downtown.

I work nights and sleep daytime.

I knew my roommate since we were kids and went to school with him.

I like the quiet place, close to work.

My parents can still take care of me.

I like my new staff person, Tim, he takes us to concerts and bocce ball! He's doing all right.

Country-operate self employment, save more money.

They love me.

My mother would then live alone and I like the idea of a house.

I don't have to worry about taking care of other peoples problems besides my own.

They seem to be very happy they are with their family.

I am with family.

I like my roommate.

I like my schedule here.

I like where I live and my roommates.

Like the people around me.

Because of my roommate.

Like the neighbors, everyone in building.

I live in my sisters home. she is passed away and I rent from my nephews.

My family, my own room, all my things are here.

Close to downtown.

Because we provide love and care for him and are always there for him.

I have no roommate.

The concept of human respect is very much a part of life here where I live.

Because I am with my family but I would like to live on my own.

Q2 - Yes Responses

My parents help me out.

I love my family, our home is nice, it is what I know.

Because my parents take good care of me.

I will soon need to move to a duplex without steps as I am having trouble walking.

Quality care.

I have someone I hang around.

It's obvious to many by his demeanor.

I have a dog, my own room, and Mr. Sanford is a good cook.

I can walk to fill most of my needs, small town, able to take care of my need, pharmacy, church, community center, meals on wheels.

I am in my home and I enjoy it.

For now, I have friends in Waunakee and a job.

I want to stay here.

I like having my own place, but it's a lot of an expense.

Parents help me with difficult daily living skills.

Peace and quiet, serenity, good family unit.

Nice and quiet.

Because I like having my privacy, plus I live near my mother.

I like living with one person.

It is what I grew up with, but will need to change soon.

I like my family I like my room.

I like living with my Mom and Dad.

Because happy with my roommate.

I like being on my own.

I am independent.

My roommate and I both like the Packers and can be a easy person to get along with sometimes.

I'm happy at home and still receive the services I need.

I like the location.

But I would also like to live with others my age.

I like to live in my home.

My neighbors.

I am unable to live independently in my own home.

It is my own home and I have people who have lived with me as extended family for about 8 years.

Nice place, good N A, get along with roommates.

Have own space & parents have to take care of me.

I enjoy being w/my family.

But I would like my own apartment soon.

Likes own room - having dog - doing things with family.

I like my family. I like having my own room.

Like to live alone.

Because I am with my mom.

Because my mom helps me with everything that I need.

But would like my own place, family.

I go to MARC 4 days a week and have my family support.

I got to spend time with my family.

I have a roommate who has residential services. That helps me a little.

I have excellent care givers and good food.

I love my family and where we live.

I made my choice! I live independently.

I want to be my own boss, just me. (and my 2 cats)

My family.

Save money on rent etc.

They help with food/house/entertainment.

This is my family since age 3. I feel like I'm part of the family and contribute on many levels.

We are joint owners and I am my own person. I can have a waterbed and a pet and I'm an adult to make my own decisions, but my sister needs me if I need it.

Q2 - No Responses

I want my own place.

No help from support staff at house.

It's more of a retirement community. I am the only young person there.

I wish there were other things to do instead of always heading out for drinks at restaurants, it seems like other people that I don't know, think I head out too many times in their mind. They also discuss it with other people, without my knowledge.

Insufficient training on my needs.

I want to live independently.

Utility bills are too expensive.

Because I want to live independently.

Living space is a little too small.

Unhappy with management, feel the need to move into own home.

1/31/08 Phoenix, Arizona. New apt. New boyfriend drifter.

I have a communication problem with my older sister Vicki and Tracey and I don't get along with my 12 year old niece CJ.

I don't get the respect that I deserve. I am treated like a child. I have time limits etc.

Need to move out so my parents can get a break.

Want to move out of noisy apt. building.

Not security locked, still need help from parents, paying for transportation from work.

I'm not able to hang on to my money. I get pushed even over-protected by my mom. I can't even have my own girlfriend over. Mom and sister don't like her.

Too many roommates.

Wanted like only one roommate.

Want a roommate but not here.

The apartment is too small. I need a big place.

She wants to live in Sun Prairie.

Because I am forced out of my own home every other weekend due to the fact that the organization won't pay for staffing on those weekends. State of Wisconsin is also responsible for this.

House is too small.

The people that help me out are too controlling of my money and me.

My landlord treats his tenants like a slush fund.

Because I can't read and I can't communicate with her (roommate) - limited support.

I would like to move out and live with a roommate.

Disrespectful neighbors.

Upkeep on apt difficult, garbage disposal doesn't work and bug problem in apt.

Currently looking for a roommate.

I could not live on my own my parents they take total care of me. I think my parents should not have to take care of me the rest of their lives. My mom had to quit her job to cover my care which is 24/7.

Because I'm going through a divorce and I'm alone.

To become independent since I live with my parents its hard for me

Jeff would like to live in a rooming house with a 1 housekeeper and 1 cook. Perhaps a large bedroom with large closet and own bath, but with a dining room for all to use! No kitchen or laundry in own unit. A co-op would be an option.

Roommate ext. loud at night with snoring, teeth grinding, howls, woots etc.

Would rather be a home owner.

I move up my parents and plus my mom has daycare and it very noisy because I can't sleep.

I want a new roommate

She's spoiled and we fight, we don't get along.

I have a very loud person living below me.

I would like to live in town.

I am 29 years old and since my mom died 2 years ago, and my sisters live so far away, I am very lonely and sad. I have not had a job since high school and no outside activities either. I need to have friends and something to do.

It is temporary. I would like to find a place closer to work and the Sun Prairie YMCA so I can walk or ride my bike. I want to be more independent.

Roommate concerns and/or transition from having lived alone as well as long time staff change.

Q2 - No Responses

I am becoming less independent, more possessive of my mother.

I would like to live in the community with friends.

Buses do not come near my home.

My living situation is very loud.

Mom & Dad always tell me what I should or should not do.

Don't get along with mother or son sometimes.

I want to live in a house.

I prefer to live alone.

Because I want to be with people my age and be more independent.

I would like to live on my own.

My roommate and live-in staff scare me.

I want to live in my own house.

I want to have my own apartment.

I want to move out says Dan.

Apartment set-up not good. Hard to retain live-in staff.

Because my roommate eats her snacks in her room.

Want to live on my own.

Q10 - N/A I don't receive any.

Q10 I don't receive home support services.

You must remember that there are people who receive county services and live "normal" lives such as I do when wording surveys like this. I'm offended by the assumption that all disabled people have attendants, don't work, go to day workshops & live with caregivers and/or roommates. I am married, I own my own home. I work P/T, I volunteer, I have pets, family & friends and I do have some come in support. I take care of my own finances and transportation and medical care.

Q8. Mom & Dad. Q8. 4 Mom & Dad. Q10. Don't receive county services.
